

TOWN OF LOCKPORT INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY
CODE OF ETHICS

Reviewed and Approved January 2024

Statement of Purpose:

The Code of Ethics is a public statement by the Agency that sets clear expectations and principles to guide practice and inspire professional excellence. The Agency believes a commonly held set of principles can assist in the individual exercise of professional judgment. This Code speaks to the core values of public accountability and transparency. The purpose of having a code of ethics and practices is to protect the credibility of the Agency by ensuring high standards of honesty, integrity, and conduct of staff. To that end, this Code of Ethics attempts to accomplish this by articulating the ethical standards observed by the Agency in pursuing and implementing economic development initiatives, and setting rules and policies that prevent conflicts of interest.

Rule with respect to conflicts of interest:

No officer, member of the board or employee should have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest.

Standards:

a. No officer, member of the board or employee should accept other employment which will impair his or her or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her or her official duties.

b. No officer, member of the board or employee should accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require him or her to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.

c. No officer, member of the board or employee should disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.

d. No officer, member of the board or employee should use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself, herself or others.

e. No officer, member of the board or employee should engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the Agency with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties. If an officer, member or employee has or believe to have a conflict of interest, he or she must immediately disclose the same to the Chairman and the Chairman shall disclose the conflict at a meeting. In the case of a conflict, the member shall recuse him or herself from voting and any member, officer or employee shall abstain from any activity with regard to the entity which causes such conflict of interest.

f. An officer, member of the board or employee should not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or her, unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person. In the course of interacting with induced businesses and/or under a PILOT, the Administrative Director may provide or be provided inconsequential benefit (business meals not to exceed $30).

g. An officer or employee should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by him or her, or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

h. An officer or employee should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

i. No officer, except the Assistant Secretary, or employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an officer or employee is a member nor corporation a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such officer, member of the board or employee, should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which receive financial assistance from the Agency.
